It is with profound sadness that we note the passing of Milan's Lila. It is too late to lament that we have not seen her enough and enjoyed her presence, but distances and time can be brutal, and all that remains is regrets. She was a kind and considerate person who lovingly impacted the lives of my exiled friend Milan, her cherished family, and all those who knew her. She leaves a void that will be impossible to fill and her presence on this earth and at this particular time enriched us all. May she rest in peace.
