“ He’s Got the Whole World in His Hands and now he has you my Brother George as you went to sleep on that day August 20, 2021. Now I lay me down to sleep I pray the Lord my Soul to keep, If I die before I wake I pray the Lord My Soul to take.

Brother George, you were called by Jesus Christ home to the Temple. Jesus called a SUPERSTAR home to rest in peace and watch over the ones left behind. You lived up to your name brother, George. You were the nucleus, the protector of the family and as a big brother. You would look out for me when I was a little girl, a teenager, all through adulthood. You taught me how to drive when I was twenty on Dillies Road. You were always there for my children, Billy, Cami & Casey and my granddaughter, Hailey in so many ways as a mentor, teacher, uncle and friend.

On holidays, my seat at the table was next to you on your left side. You always sat at the head of the table like our father did on Elmwood Street. George, you decorated your home inside and outside, set the dining room table, cooked the meals and did not sit down until everyone else was served. You have been like that all your life, serving others before yourself, including strangers, friends & family. This is how you got the nickname, THE SAINT, from me.

I brought a Hallmark Christmas ornament for you in January 2021 to give to you in December this year to hang on your tree because you always have a Christmas tree at your house. The ornament says, “Brother, George, I Love You and Miss You”

The Lord has you in His hands and I have you in my heart, Your sister, Sharon

“ I’m very sadden to hear of George’s passing. I have fond memories spending time at George’s & Geris when the girls visited from out East. Not sure why George let me mow the grass on his riding lawn mower but I mistakenly ran over a few trees George planted. Thank goodness he couldn’t out run the mower !! George never stayed mad at us kids for long. I hope you are up there having a beer with my Dad right now..... Chris Koenig-Ward
