

Patricia A. Hain

August 17, 1948 - March 30, 2021

Patricia A. Hain, 72, passed away on Tuesday, March 30, 2021 in Barrington, IL. She was born August 17, 1948 in Chicago, IL and was formerly of Mundelein, IL currently living in Round Lake, IL. Pat was a graduate of Mundelein High School, a former member of Santa Maria del Popolo Parish and was a retired employee of the United States Postal Service. She also worked at St. Mary's of the Lake Seminary for many years afterwards.

Pat enjoyed traveling, music and spending time with friends and family. She was by far the most intelligent, strong, free-spirited, humble and most supportive mom and friend to all the people she cared about. Her curiosity, tenacity, strength and wild and wicked sense of humor was unmatched. She will be sorely missed by those who loved her.

Surviving are her daughter, Patricia Carrick; 2 grandchildren, Mary Beth and Willa Carrick; sister, Ann Hain and also by 2 brothers, Joseph (Liz) Hain and Paul (Chris) Hain; 6 nieces and 1 nephew. Harvey II, Harvey III and Suzanne Hileman and family who she treated as her own.

Private services were at Burnett-Dane Funeral Home in Libertyville, IL. For info: 847-362-3009 or share a memory at <http://www.burnettdane.com>.

Comments

“ Its so crazy last time I saw my aunt was when I was super young and I haven't seen her in a long time its crazy she used to have me over and we made German food and go to myrtle Beach and. Go see my other cousins its crazy I haven't seen her in a long time now I am 23 and its crazy she is gone sorry aunt pat I love u

jordan hain - July 29 at 10:23 PM

“ Pat was the friend of a lifetime. So different from others. We met almost every day. To dis cuss everything. She was so special.

Marilyn opletal - June 22 at 07:16 PM