“ I first met Dick on a beer trip - Trappist Ales of Belgium. He quickly became a great friend and we went on several more trips in Europe & the US, along with many local beer events. I was amazed how easily he could strike up a conversation with a complete stranger and then leave him/her as a friend. Dick was knowledgeable, caring, and thoughtful. I knew he was a loving husband who loved and was very proud of his children and grandchildren. My deepest sympathy to Diane and the rest of his family for their loss. I and many others will miss him deeply.

“ I met Dick when I was a sales manager in Chicago in 1970. I had just moved there from Detroit. Dick invited my wife and I to their apartment near OHare airport. We had a lovely dinner. Then Diane made us Creme d Menthe and vanilla ice cream for dessert. The four of us finished the half gallon!

“ I am deeply saddened by the loss of this wonderful man. In the 70's I was a part of the S/P Chicago gang of sales reps for whom Dick always organized our summer time MWOm's (Meetings Without Managers - although some of the Managers were invited!). These were at Wrigley Field/Cubs games and were incredibly fun events.

He and the other guys would generously tip our beer man when we arrived to make sure "the beers would keep on coming". We also nicknamed him Houdini because of his ability to leave on Friday nights and never tell anyone he was leaving. He always laughed later and got a kick out of telling us he was already home before "anyone missed me". Loved Dick and my most sincere condolences to Diane and their family.

“ We are so saddened to have lost a great neighbor and friend. I loved chatting with him outside and in recent years talked to him frequently on Facebook. He was a truly great man and we will miss him.

“ Mentor, friend, laughing buddy and trusted confidante for over 40 years. The world was so lucky to have you and I shall see you on the other side. You will be missed more than my words can say. I thank you for making me part of your family.

With love,

“ Rest Easy Mr. Cutler. I enjoyed trying to know more answers than you and Jonathan on Jeopardy. I think only once. My love to the family.

“ He was my younger brother for 80 very short years. While smaller in years, he was the bigger in caring, compassion and intelligence. Most importantly, he contributed to make me the person that I am. Thank you and am so proud to have you as a brother
