

Roma I. Advani

December 11, 1940 - May 9, 2019

Roma I. Advani, 78, passed away on Thursday, May 9, 2019 in Lincolnshire, Illinois. She is survived by her husband, Indru Advani; son, Raveen Advani; two grandchildren, Katherine & Sanjay; and two sisters, Mona Anand & Kamla Nambiar. She was preceded in death by her sister, Champa Kripalani.

Roma loved her family more than anything, and was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, daughter, sister, sister-in-law, and aunt. She had a big heart, was very kind to others, and saw the good in people. She had a distinguished teaching career, highlighted by nearly 25 years at Prairie State College in Chicago Heights, Illinois. There, she won numerous awards as a chemistry professor, while living out her passion of helping students to build their confidence and make the most of their abilities. She was a loyal friend to many, and will be dearly missed.

A memorial service will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, May 25, 2019 at Burnett-Dane Funeral Home, 120 W. Park Ave, Libertyville, Illinois. For Information, please call (847) 362-3009 or please sign the guestbook at www.burnettdane.com.

“ I have great memories of spending time with Roma in Chicago as a younger child. My most fond moment is sitting in her and Indru’s living room as Bill Clinton admits he lied to the world. Also, her reaction to my sister asking if they use the same currency in Chicago as in California was priceless. She will be greatly missed

“ My deepest condolences to Roma's family and friends. I new her as a colleague at Prairie State College. When I first joined the faculty in 2000, Roma was so very kind and welcoming. She made a huge contribution to our community, especially students, through her teaching and kind ways. I am very sorry to hear that she has passed, and my heart is sad upon hearing the news of her passing.
