“ We are all shocked to hear of Aaron's passing. Certainly too young, and so much more to experience. He was one the best sales students in 435...closing appointments during the semester project with Second City. The picture is how I will remember him. Condolences to all family and friends. “ We always had a plan for the next night you'd visit. Always trying to one up each other in every game we played. You were one of the smartest men I knew. You made me better. Every time we'd spend the night we'd do anything but sleep because hanging out with your best friend with all the time in the world is the dream. I love you. I miss you

“ My heart and prayers go out to the Myint Family and all of his closest friends. Aaron was always the nicest person in the room and truly had a way to make everyone smile and laugh. He has a laundry list of people this has deeply affected and that alone should speak to his character. I'll attach a few pictures below from my brother's wedding. Those are the most recent photos I have. Even though this is a very sad time, please don't forget to shine a light on the best memories and remember him for the sweet, caring, ambitious, and loyal person that he was.
