

Adam Tigelman

September 3, 1925 - August 27, 2014

Adam Tigelman, 88, of North Chicago, passed away on Wednesday, August 27, 2014. He was born September 3, 1925, in Akron, OH, to Joseph and Theresa Tigelman. Adam attended South High School in Akron prior to joining the U.S. Navy in 1942. He served in various theaters throughout World War II, and retired from the Navy as Senior Chief Petty Officer in 1967. Adam was a kind, thoughtful and generous friend to all--and a pretty good golfer. Adam will be deeply missed by very special friend Stella Allen, of Libertyville, by her family and by his numerous nieces and nephews in the Akron area. He was preceded in death by his parents, by his brothers and his sisters-in-law, Joseph (Helen) and Norbert (Rose Ann) and by an infant sister. At Adam's request, there will be no services. Inurnment will be in Arlington National Cemetery, at a date that is yet undetermined. The family wishes to thank the staff of North Chicago's Capt. James A. Lovell Federal Health Care Center, especially those in hospice care for their very professional and compassionate attention in Adam's last days. Arrangements by Burnett-Dane Funeral Home.
