“ I sit stunned and saddened by this tragic news. It seems like only yesterday that we launching into yet another childhood adventure where the troubles of the world and life weren't yet thrust upon us.

The lives of those who knew you and loved you were forever changed by being around you and your family.

Until we meet again. Rest well my friend!

“ Also a classmate with Alan, elementary thru high school. He was also my neighbor just a few houses down the street as well. Alan was one of the nicest, caring, honest individuals I ever met. He always had a big smile to share with anyone lucky enough to cross his path. Now he is a soldier in God's Army and singing in the choir with angels. May God hold near his loving family at this time and give you all peace knowing that Alan is in heaven now, and that one day you will see him there again.

“ My Dear Friend Alan D Perley, I remember the first time I met you when I was the new girl in fourth grade at Benjamin Franklin Elementary. We debated which one of us was taller while lining up to go to recess for three years. In sixth grade we sat next to each other in Mrs. Bartell's class and we were each other's confidantes. That lasted through college, you know some of my secrets and I know some of yours. Band, orchestra and all of the music including time spent in your Mom's music studio while I took piano lessons and the college choir tour at Pheasant Run. Every time I hear a Chicago song I think of you and your tribute band from the ninth grade talent show. You were The Living Legacy of the Leader of the Band, The Perl, Big Al, and Mr. P. and in grade school you gave yourself the nickname of Lover Boy and signed all the girls yearbooks that way. You are loved by so many. You were a friend to everyone and kind to all. I still can't believe that you are gone or understand why you decided to leave. My heart is hurting. You were one of a kind and the world will never be the same without you. Prayers and hugs for your family. Heavens orchestra has a new French Horn player and the music must be beautiful. Rest In Peace, Mr. P. 🎵 ...
