“ I wish I could have known him longer...what an amazing man he was. He was a role model of what a husband, father, and grandfather should be! I know he is at peace now and looking down on his family and protecting them. But he will surely be missed.

“ I met Al in 1998. He was a cherished family friend to the Maeer's for quite a while when I entered the family that year. We were blessed to have him stand up as one of my husband's groomsmen, as he was always someone my husband looked up to. Although not blood related, he was a truly loved family member whose stories, insight and humor will be deeply missed. God Bless you Al, and peace be with your family.

“ Al was such a kind goodhearted person. With Deb as his sidekick, they made a great pair and Spyder team. He will be missed by Spyder friends and family. I haven't known him very long, but i won't forget what few Spyder rides i did go on that he piloted. I always felt that as a new rider, he would have helped me if I needed it. Remember the fun times, those are the best memories to have, that help us get through sad ones. Hugs and peace to the family..Allison Kuranda and family

“ My heartfelt condolences go out to Debbie and her family. I started working for AI at LEGENT in 1992. We immediately hit it off. He was friendly and open. As a leader he was masterful. He could envision things and help those around him see what could be done. You then wanted to get going and get it done. He was a master at making fun of himself and using that again to get things done. His vision was transformative. Besides being my manager (and later working with him at Hitachi Data Systems) we also became good friends. His sharp wit; thoughtful and truthful insights; corny sense of humor, and his talent as an advisor, mentor and especially his friendship will be missed.

“ My deepest condolences to the Rosenberg family. AI will always be remembered as a cherished friend, great boss (Wickes) and outstanding mentor! Always loved hearing the never-ending stories of his kids (with a coffee cup in hand)! Always so proud. Thankful for our 35 years of friendship. AI will forever be on the short list of instrumental people in my life! RIP "old friend" (how I always addressed him in birthday wishes :-). I will never forget you. Sandy Bushnick
