“ I played baseball with Andy in high school and he was one heck of a pitcher. But most of all he was a funny dude that I liked a lot, RIP ma brother.

“ *Wendy and family,
We were so saddened to hear of the loss of Andy...so young. So many years have passed with so many fond memories of Andy on the ball diamond with my dad and Mark. Recently we enjoyed seeing him at the golf course where he would always share a smile and a hello. Continue to talk about him and keep all the memories alive...he will be missed.

“ What a guy! Andy is a part of so many of my happy memories. And he was also one of the few people I allowed to call me "Bridgie". I loved his sweet "up to mischief" smile and how fun he always was to be around. I'm sure Bobby is delighted to have him to play golf with up in heaven. :) Wen - Steve and I love you and Brandon and are holding you both in our hearts during this incredibly difficult time.
