

Angelo B. Giuseffi

December 4, 1927 - April 16, 2026

Angelo B. Giuseffi, 98, passed away on Thursday, April 16, 2026, in Libertyville, Illinois.

He was born December 4, 1927, in Chicago, Illinois. Angelo was formerly of North Riverside, Illinois, and had made his home in Grayslake, Illinois for the past 30 years. He dedicated 35 years of service as a draftsman with the Cook County Highway Department before his retirement. Angelo was a devoted member of St. Mary of the Annunciation Church in Mundelein, Illinois.

Angelo took great pride in the art of trimming bushes, ensuring that both his own and his neighbors' properties always looked immaculate. He will be remembered as a man who valued his health and, above all, as a devoted protector of his family, who meant everything to him.

He is survived by his children, Vito (Linda) Giuseffi and Diane (the late Sam) Viola; his grandchildren, Amy Viola, Sammy Viola, Angelo (Allison) Giuseffi, and Lauren Belke; his great-grandchildren, Giada, Jackson, Ava, and Vito; his sister, Angie Petrocelli; his brother, Anthony (Angel) Giuseffi; and his sister-in-law, Anna Marie Giuseffi.

He was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Philomena, in 2022; and his siblings, Danato, Ralph (Chris), and Cecelia.

Private funeral services are being held at Burnett-Dane Funeral Home in Libertyville, with interment at Queen of Heaven Cemetery in Hillside, Illinois. For information, please call 847-362-3009 or visit www.burnettdane.com to share a memory.
