“ Our hearts are laden with sadness at the loss of our beloved friend, grandmother and confidant. Gram was the type of person we all would like to emulate. Her kindness filled a room and her smile welcomed you home. Whenever we entered the restaurant she was the first person we saw and the last person we hugged goodbye. Her embrace made all our troubles disappear and her words of kindness and wisdom gave us the fortitude to move forward. The glint in her eyes made you realize she wasn't always serious, and that she had fun and knew how to keep life in balance. Baking with Gram was not only a calorie counting event but her kindness made the cookies even sweeter. Video taping her baking in the restaurant turned into numerous requests from customers for her delicacies. What fun we had making that video with our old camera. Gram made everyone feel special, loved and important. Our prayers, love and sympathy go out to her loved ones and she will always have a special place in our hearts and prayers. Thank you dear friend for being our angel and filling our lives with love. With deepest sympathy and love. Les, Jane, Mary, Megan, Courtney and Ryan Sturgeon

“ Grandma was a dear and sweet woman..for as tiny as she was, she was larger than life...My son, Joey, loved working with Grandma, Patty and Nick. He LOVED Grandma's Bolognese sauce....in fact, we ALL loved it! When we would visit, her eyes would light up at the site of Joey, and stand and look up at him with such love, that only a Grandma could do..She was a gem..and she touched our lives so dearly. Our condolences to the family...x
