“ To Margaret Borcia, Joe Morrison and the entire Morrison/Borcias families:

Having a grandson nearly 3 years of age, the news of your precious Tony's passing was shocking and immediately entered my thoughts on a number of very deep and very heartbreaking levels. These were heightened by the fact that I had just recently had a series of professional communications with Margaret and Joe, and these two fine people were fresh in my mind, resulting in those feelings pouring out as I tried to, but could never, imagine the profundity of the unspeakable grief that surely pervades this terrible loss of yours. I simply feel so, so sad for all of you, and you and Tony have been in my thoughts for days now.

My sincerest and infinite condolences to Margaret, Joe and the rest of your family.

“ Dear Borgia Family:

I am so deeply saddened for your loss of your precious angel. We didn't know Tony, but as I put my 10-year-old son on the bus this morning for his first day at Butterfield School, my heart dropped and I wept for you. I feel called by God to send blessings and love to you through prayer. May God's unchanging hand hold you and guide you through this unimaginable time. Give your grief to God. You will see Tony's radiant smile again on a glorious day. God bless you.
