“ Barbara M. Albrecht passed away Nov. 1, 2019. She is a lady that helped my mom take care of my brothers and I before i was even born. She was Barbara Workman then, and a DEAR FRIEND to our family. I have pictures of her lovingly holding me in her arms when I was 3 months old smiling down at me with a "mothers smile"!!! She obviously loved me. She has three daughters that I have known and have bounced in and out of their lives over the years. Holly Albrecht Palmer is the oldest and I am the closest to her. Tracy is in the middle. I knew her less but kept in touch a small amount. Wendy Nichole is the youngest. I did not really keep up with her so much. I did not talk with Barbara for at least 8 years. Then She found out that my first wife, Vivian Hofeld, had some medical issues and contacted me on Facebook with advice!!! After probably at least 8 years of me not being in touch with her!!! She was someone that obviously loved me and wanted ONLY GREAT THINGS to happen in her "little Marky's" life She had MANY UPS AND DOWNS In her life. BUT, I LOVE HER FOR ALL THAT SHE DID FOR MY FAMILY AND ME AND I LOVE HER FOR THEE THREE INCREDIBLE DAUGHTERS THAT ARE IN THE WORLD BECAUSE OF HER. YOU WILL ALWAYS BE IN MY HEAT AND SOUL BARBARA. GOOD JOURNEY!!! XOXOXO :) :))
