“ I remember as a little boy going to Barb and Roger's house for Christmas eve. She always made a wonderful meal, was soft spoken and a very sweet aunt. Scott

I always remember how "inflatable Barb could be. Making a delicious Christmas Eve dinner, especially the desserts. I recall the time she bent too close to one of candles on table and caught a piece of her on fire. She very calmly patted it out, patted her hair back into place and continued serving; calm as could be.

It was always unique and fun sharing my birthday with Barb, and George (Washington). We accumulated quite a few candles.
