“ During her illness, Aunt Barb was the most cheerful, upbeat person I have ever known. My favorite memories are being part of the best Christmas dinners ever. It was so enjoyable sitting and eating at the long dining room table full of family talking and joking. My deepest sympathy to Uncle Eddie and the whole family.
Love, Amy

“ To the Willer Family,
Our memories of Barb will always be her constant smile. A smile that lit the room and made all those in it feel happy and alive. That light lives on as we sit here and remember our visit last summer. Despite her illness she had us laughing, especially Butch. He was teasing her, and she gave it right back! She will be missed but never forgotten. Our heartfelt sympathy and prayers are there for you.

“ My memories of her from when I was a teenager are of how nice and invariably upbeat she always was. I can still hear my Mom in my head, I know she thought a lot of Barb. Maybe they are together somewhere today. -Chris
