“ Escaping a brutal arctic Chicago one January winter, the three Tuchows, me, Wes and Barry fled and flew to Acapulco, Mexico for the mother of all vacations. We had a great incredible and indelible time in those insouciant days going daily to the vast open Pacific Ocean's Pie De La Cuesta Beach in our rented jeep. Breakfast at the Princess, Sanborns, VIPS, Denny's, and Dino's. Barry reading his Dean Koontz book, me reading Mad magazine and Wes listening to Genesis.

“ My deepest condolences to Pudgy, Garrett, Brian, and Robbie. Due to our same age, I hung more with Barry growing up, he had a vibrant personality and a warmth about him. People instantly liked him. He was a talented person and in his day a very good athlete. In life you always think that there is plenty of time to catch up with people, but you never know. Life gets so busy that you forget to keep in touch. Wish I had. Very sorry for all of your loss. My prayers and thoughts will be with you all.
