“ Paul and all of your family my deepest condolences. I could never say enough about Bill. He was like a dear uncle to me. I met him as a young banker at 23. He took me under his wing in his own sort of way. He was always so kind to me. He had such a humility and zest for life. I've been missing him since I heard the news. I have such admiration for him. I'll so miss him. I know. He is in heaven. Looking down w love and grace at his family. He taught me so much. I'm such a better person for having known him. May god bless Bill.
