

Carl C. Hansen

May 27, 1921 - August 8, 2012

Carl C. Hansen, 91, of Lake Villa, at rest Aug. 8, 2012, beloved husband of Ruth E. Hansen; loving father of Carl (Beth) Hansen, Jr.; devoted grandfather of Jay Hansen and Lindsey (Jeff) Miska; and great-grandfather of Madison and John. Former owner of Carl Hansen Disposal Service in Chicago, president of Lake Landfill, Inc. in Northfield, former president of Chicago and Suburban Refuse Disposal Assn. and retired employee of Waste Management, Inc. Visitation 10 a.m. until time of service at 11:30 a.m., Friday, Aug. 17 at BURNETT-DANE FUNERAL HOME, 120 W. Park Ave. (Rt. 176), Libertyville. Interment Ridgewood Cemetery. Memorial info: 847-362-3009 or sign the guestbook at www.burnettdane.com

Tribute Wall

TG

“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of your father. I too lost my dad several years ago and know how hard this time can be. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

Tom Golec - April 27, 2018 at 06:55 AM

CW

“ Dear Ruth: My thoughts have been with you every day since I heard about Carl's passing. All I can think of is his sense of humor, great laugh, and funny sayings. The one that used to make me laugh every time was when he always responded to something you told him with the usual "Unbelievable!" I hope that this will bring a smile to your face at this time of sadness. I've sent you a card and I want you to read what I said about your art. You are so gifted and now you have time to express that gift. I love you always, your "niece in spirit" Carolyn.

Carolyn C. White - April 27, 2018 at 06:55 AM

SD

“ Carl was the father of a good friend when I was in my teens. He also was a close family friend to my parents, Bill and Shirley Downing.
There are lots of good memories, especially of Carl's humor. One of his favorite lines... when asked how business is doing, Carl would say "Business is picking up!" Carl gave me one of my first jobs one high school summer. I had to keep track of the garbage trucks going into and out of the dump. It was a good start to a working career.
Carl was a hard working good guy.
Scott Downing, age 61

Scott Downing - April 27, 2018 at 06:55 AM