“ Carl was my good friend for 50 years. He was totally dedicated to his family from the first day I met him to the last time i spoke to him recently when he praised the exploits (whatever was happening at the time) of his youngest son, Michael. Carl was strong, loyal, determined, exhuberant, and kind in a way that was exceptional. I will miss him. I know his children and his wife Peg will miss him, and to them our sympathies. Carl was humble beyond any measure of his impact on those around him. Our lives will all be less for his having left us.

“ Carl, my brother, was such a caring person to everyone. Our parents instilled the true Italian family values in both of us and gave him the responsibility of seeing that I was always watched out for and protected. He will be so sorely missed by all of our family and revered in death as he was in life. Simply, he was a great human being and a living example of God's mission in life..RIP

Ray, my husband, and I were fortunate in our friendship with Carl at Lake Forest College, and later when Carl was at Great Lakes in the Navy.
When Ray was broadcasting on CBS for football, Carl joined him in the Press Box as a spotter.
I know they are in Heaven sharing lots of laughs.
God Bless you both.

Perhaps they are not Stars in the sky, but rather openings where our Loved Ones shine down to let us know they are happy.

MONTREAL, CANADA

Carl , was our cousin from his father's (Vito) side of the family - brother to our late maternal grandmother, Maria Rosaria Scicli (as it is spelled in Sicily) .

He loved coming to visit us in Montreal. He loved his roots, the Sicilian dialect, the traditions and the culture ..and we can't forget how much he LOVED the old- fashioned cookie recipes from the old country my grandmother always baked for him and THOSE famous Montreal Sicilian cannolis ...which he often took back to Chicago with him ,and each time, had to explain to the U.S custom officer at the Montreal airport what was in the box.

He loved attending the many weddings and special family events.

He loved to sit with his late cousins , Nina and Maria Miceli and spent hours asking them questions on who was related to who and how they were linked to his life. He cherished that so much and we were privileged to have had him in our lives. The wealth of love and happiness he brought us and the moments he cherished with us will live forever in our memories.

He served his country with great pride. He devoted his life to his family , near and far. His laughter, his smile, his "joie de vivre" filled our hearts . He will be greatly missed.

The legacy he leaves behind will carry on in each one of us here in Montreal.

To Carl's family, our prayers are with you, we love you and never forget , WE, the FAMAGLIA are always here for you.

May he rest in peace.

We Love you Carl !

Your cousins Pat (Pasqualino) and Ady (Adelaide) Cardillo
