“ We laughed together, cried together and shared many memories of the things we had done as couples and after. I will miss Carla dearly. I want her sons and daughter and all her grandchildren to know how very proud she was of each and every one of you and how much she loved all of you. You were all a large part of our conversations with each other We believe that she is now with Alan and that gives us great comfort. You are all in our thoughts and prayers.
