

Chivas Warren-Piscitello

November 10, 1977 - December 1, 2023

In the town of Lubbock, Texas, on a crisp November day in 1977, a radiant soul named Cynthia “Chivas” Warren was born. Known affectionately as Chivas, she lived a life that touched the hearts of everyone she encountered. Chivas, with her warm personality and captivating smile, was the belle of the ball, lighting up rooms and leaving a lasting impression on those fortunate enough to know her. That same smile landed her a part in the movie Any Given Sunday.

As she grew, Chivas embarked on a journey that led her to Mettawa, Illinois, where she planted her roots and built a beautiful life with her husband, Christopher Piscitello. Together, they created a warm and loving home to raise their two children, Anthony Christopher (12) and Ella -Francesca Giovanna (6).

Chivas was not just a radiant presence; she was a trailblazer in the business world. Armed with nothing but a little black book and a fax machine on the floor of her apartment, she founded Market One, a marketing company that would grow to become a resounding million-dollar business. Her entrepreneurial spirit and determination inspired those around her, proving that with passion and hard work, dreams could indeed become reality.

Her love extended beyond her family and work to include a menagerie of beloved pets. Brody, the African Gray Parrot, shared her home with a friendly Golden Doodle (Piper), a turtle named T2, her Shih Tzu, (Kayley), and a plethora of finned friends. Chivas found joy and comfort in the companionship of her furry and feathered family members.

Chivas had a zest for life that transcended borders. She loved to travel, with a particular fondness for international adventures. Whether exploring the vibrant streets of foreign cities, or lounging on tranquil beaches, Chivas embraced new experiences with open arms, creating cherished memories that will forever linger in the hearts of those who shared those journeys with her.

On December 1st, the world bid farewell to this extraordinary woman, leaving behind a legacy of love, laughter, and unwavering determination.

Chivas is preceded in death by her father, Robert Warren. She is survived by her husband, Christopher Piscitello and their two children. Her mother Cindy Acrey (Jerry), mom Sherri Warren, sister Adrian Talasek and brother Chad Fox (Sara), brother-in-law Victor Piscitello (Lisa) many aunts and uncles and nieces and nephews including her bonus daughter Kevan Kresl (Jack).

Donations can be made to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital in memory of Chivas at www.stjude.org/donate.

“ I met Chivas at the reunion Chris and I planned a few years ago. At Chivas’s house she greeted me with a huge smile that made you feel comfortable and welcome at her home. As she showed me around the kitchen, and explained the different flowers she had, she had the unique ability to make me feel like we were all friends. I thought maybe she know Chris and I were working together so she was especially sweet to me. I was wrong, that’s how she greeted everyone. One girl she just met loved a flower in the kitchen, she literally gave the girl one of the flowers, I thought that was so sweet and that really sums up Chivas. My heart breaks for Chris and the kids.

“ I first met Chivas a few months after she moved into our neighborhood in 2014. It was the evening of my birthday and I was outside in my yard when I saw a golf cart cruising past with her and Anthony (he was 2 then) and a dog running alongside. I waved and she came by and we were immediate friends. She was like a sister to me, and has always said the same.
