“ May the Hearer of prayer give the family the comfort needed during this time of grief (Psalm 65:2). The Almighty is a refuge for us in times of distress. May you find relief in His promises of life again for our lost love ones like Christian, found in His word during this time of sadness.

“ Chris, yeah yeah I know your name is Christian but to me your name is Chris. Wow I can't believe today is 4 years since you have left us. So much has happened since you have been gone. Your 3 girls, wow are they getting to be so big, Elizabeth is almost as tall as Mom. Melissa is doing an outstanding job with them. Your nephews Payton, Cameron & Grayson are getting big as well. Both Payton and Cameron have picked up hockey, Payton is now in Squirt Hockey and will be doing both Travel and House, Cameron is just starting and a couple more lessons and he will be a novice then move onto 8U Mite. Cameron wants to be on a team so bad like his big brother Payton. So this summer we have both Payton & Cameron playing 3 on 3 hockey. Not together of course but for Conditioning for Payton and for Cameron to get his feet wet for team play. At this time Grayson has no interest in learning to skate, but I am sure soon enough he will cause he enjoys doing what his big brothers do. When I see them play together it brings back memories when you and I would do that. That was very enjoyable for me and I have all those memories to look back on. Oh yeah the Cubs won the World Series last year, and yesterday they made a trade with your beloved White Sox for Jose Quintana for 4 minor league players. Yes I had to throw this in here at you. Well I will stop rambling on. Love & Miss you Chris, Harold
