

Corrine H. Chang

March 30, 1942 - October 30, 2020

Corrine H. Chang, 78, passed away on October 30, 2020 at 12:51am surrounded by her loved ones in the comfort of her own home.

She was born on March 30, 1942 in Tainan, Taiwan and lived with her parent's Li and Lu Shia Cheng, her older sister Christine and her younger sister Esther. In her younger years in Tainan, she was baptized when she was 18 years old and then graduated from Tainan Normal Teacher's College and became an Elementary school teacher, a passion she always had. Later she attended National Dan Jiang college and received a Bachelor's Degree there.

In 1969, she came to the United States to help her older sister Christine Lee to take care of her first son, Daniel Lee. It was in Chicago, IL when she was attending a dinner party at Christine's house where she met the love of her life, Kou H. Chang. They married on December 26, 1970 and she is survived by her husband Kou, her eldest daughter Jennifer, her middle daughter Michelle, her youngest son Jonathan, and her grandchildren Nathan, Dylan, Jax and Ela.

She was a devoted Christian and dedicated her life to actively participating in the children's and women's ministry when she was a member of the Evangelical Taiwanese Church for 30 years.

She was the most lovely wife, devoted mother, an amazing sister, a loyal friend, a kind spirit, extremely warm hearted, very easy going, always full of smiles, extremely social, and had the biggest heart for those that she loved. Corrine is in heaven now and is in God's hand. She is living in peaceful bliss and not suffering anymore.

Rest in peace. We will always love and remember you.

Uncle Kouhui and the children; I read Corrine's obituary several times, and found a little mis-translation if you want to consider correcting it: the name of the school where Corrine got her Bachelor's degree should be translated as National Dan Jiang University, not National Dean Jiang University.

“ Jeni, Michelle, Jonathan - My deep condolences to you and your families during these hard times. Stories of your mother always made me laugh as she was clearly the nucleus of the family. I will never forget seeing her screaming Michelle's name during our college graduation from the first row of the football stadium so she could get a picture. She was so proud and so determined to get that photo opp! My thoughts and prayers are with you. May she rest in peace. XOXO, Shuko, Masa and Misaki
