Tiya Kesing is already greatly missed. When I moved to the US in 2007 she lovingly opened her arms to welcome and house me under the safe home of her wonderful family Nathan and Rizza. The love and kindness she instilled within her children (Nathan, Christine, Alan(Alice) and Allen) have been warm-heartedly felt and extended to my family. Under her nurturing care she connected the future generations of cousins from Canada and it has been a blessing to be apart of the Vizcayno family ever since. Although we will miss her infectious smile, sense of humor and great cooking (budbud my favorite), my fondest memories are of her and tiyo reconnecting with my parents as they shared their youthful stories of the Philippines with us which usually broke us out into tears of laughter. I know my parents are greatly saddened by her passing and wished we could have attended her ceremony to celebrate her life and say our goodbye but we are happy to know she is now at peace and with her beloved Jose.

Peace and love.
