“ Cindy was blessed with a beautiful caring personality for all those she met. Underneath her strong (stubborn) personality was a loving and compassionate person. She LOVED the Lord; and He was part of her daily activities. Cindy would express concern for the spiritual aspect of her sons, and regretted not being able to communicate that with them. She was a great cook. Unfortunately, her failing eyesight prevented her from using her cooking skills and many other skills for everyone. Cindy was very compassionate towards animals and missed not having a pet, in her house. We will especially miss having conversations with her.
