

Dr. Daniel "Doc" Brown

May 30, 1926 - October 8, 2014

Dr. Daniel D. Brown, 88, passed away on Wednesday, Oct. 8, 2014 at Advocate Condell Medical Center in Libertyville. He was born May 30, 1926 in Milwaukee, WI and was a Libertyville resident from 1959 until moving to Saddlebrook Farms in Grayslake in 2002. He was a founding member of Grace Lutheran Church in Libertyville and a current member of St. Matthews Lutheran Church in Hawthorn Woods. Dan joined the US Army Air Corps in 1944 at 17 years old and was a member of the Libertyville American Legion Post #329. Following his discharge, he became a Milwaukee Police Officer and attended art school. He later attended the Palmer School of Chiropractic in Davenport, Iowa and opened his first office in Crystal Lake. Upon moving to Libertyville, Dr. Brown opened another office and served the community for many years. He was a past president of the Libertyville Lions Club, was voted a Libertyville Senior of the Year and in retirement still enjoyed his artwork and many original paintings. He also enjoyed golf, bowling, Bible Study and taking the WW II Honor Flight to Washington.

Surviving are his wife of 66 years, Betty Brown (nee Ewig); 2 daughters, Danelle (Walter) Marquardt of Carol Stream and Jody (Douglas) Moody of Rolling Meadows; 3 Grandchildren, Zachary Marquardt, Cole and Colin Moody; and his sister Patricia (Frank) Schibelka of Dacula, GA.

He was preceded in death by his parents, John and Victoria Brown and his sister Dolores Kosciuk.
