“ Dani and I became friends when she did a longterm sub for me at Cape Elizabeth Middle School here in Maine after I had surgery in 2011. She later was hired permanently, and we worked closely together on the 8th grade team. We shared the connection of both being Illinois natives and enjoyed our friendly White Sox-Cubs rivalry. I retired in 2015, and for the past two years, I've occasionally subbed for her - coming full circle. Dani was a such a pleasure to work with, and I will miss her very much. I will always cherish the gifts she brought me every year from Chicago. My deepest condolences to Mark, her mother, sister, and the entire family.

“ Danielle was a fantastic teacher for me during the 2015-2016 middle school junior year. We had not talked for about a year at the time of her death, but she was still a great teacher, and my second favorite middle school teacher (behind Tabitha Eastman). She knew how to teach very well, and since learning of her death, I have been shocked and saddened that one of the greatest history and English teachers has been taken off this Earth. She knew everything to say and when to say it while teaching, and that was something great about her. I will truly miss her, and my prayers go out to her and her family. RIP Danielle Kunert (1971-2017).
