“ I had the privilege of teaching both Sierra and Savannah in 3rd grade. My memories of those years include Danielle as she was always there to help on Field trips, Mystery Reading, Art Adventure, and Holiday Parties. I could see Danielle was a natural teacher. I especially enjoy my memory of her wearing her purple wig. So much fun! The Miller girls are beautiful inside and out. They make everyone who knows them feel proud, just as Danielle did. I will keep you in my prayers.

It was her love for you all and her love of life that made her so strong throughout her battle with illness. I will always keep her and you all in my thoughts and prayers.
