“ I worked with Rita for many years and Dave was the realtor on our house. He showed us probably 50 houses before we finally settled on the Tylerton Road one. Dave was always helpful and patient with us and when we saw a terrible house, he made us laugh. We can't thank Dave enough for helping us and he will be missed. Rita - We are so sorry for your loss. You are in our thoughts and prayers.
Much Love, Amy and Barry Hajduk

“ I have many fond memories of Dave as we worked together when he was a sales manager in Oklahoma City and St. Louis. He had high work standards and was a lot of fun to be with. Occasionally, he could demonstrate his German hardheadedness. Love and peace, Mike Simpson
