“ David became family here at Progressive. One of my greatest memories was seeing a video of him walking without assistance from the edge of the driveway all the way into the house to his chair. I wanted to keep that video forever, but I lost it when I switched phones.

That video reassured me that trust plays an intricate part in how we respond to others. If you gained David's trust, he would do anything you'd ask.

If he didn't trust you, you would likely go home with scratches or missing hair lol...

Some months back, a random question was asked in regards to what individuals we would consider for success stories. I chose David!

To the family, please stay strong! Know that he is in resting and you all have done a job well done!!
