“ I am beyond devastated by the sudden loss of my dear friend Debbie. She was such an upbeat, positive, and thoughtful person. She was my walking buddy at work and I have so many wonderful memories of fun times with her. Debbie will be greatly missed by everyone that knew her! ♥♥

“ Debbie was a wonderful, caring, kind hearted, funny, and thoughtful person. I am so grateful to have known her as a coworker over the past 8 years. She had a great sense of humor, always smiling and laughing, and was so full of life. She spoke often of her family, and just loved being a mom. I recently got married and she always asked me about my wedding planning, even sending me some suggestions on venues and vendors along the way. That's one of the fond memories of her I will hold onto dearly. Hart family, my thoughts are with you all - Debbie was a bright light who will be deeply missed by all who had the fortune and pleasure of knowing her.

“ Debbie was the light of every gathering and was ALWAYS smiling. She had more energy and positivity than anyone I have ever met - and I adored her to the moon and back....I wish that I had gotten more years with her. I will forever think of Debbie and smile when I hear a Taylor Swift song...she will be dearly missed by all who were lucky enough to meet her.

“ My sweet, sweet pal. A momma, who adored her family, a friend who always showed up...oh the fun we had all those years ago and the water bottles you would make me label up for soccer games. You will always hold a special place in my heart. Rest well my friend, and keep watch over us...we will always need your guidance and love. Keeping your family in my thoughts, and when the sun rises..and I feel the warmth from it, you will be on my mind. .

“ Thankful

Dear Lord, how are we supposed to be thankful at a time like this? You've taken from each of us; our daughter, our sister, wife, mother, niece, cousin, co-worker and most of all, you've taken our friend.

Debbie also know as Deboree or Deborah when Dad would sing to her as a kid. She was also called Deborah (of which she hated), Debbie, Deb and sometimes "Carol" (although that is an extremely funny family joke).

Debbie was a lot of things to a lot of people but the biggest thing that Debbie was, was a "giver". She gave every part of her being trying to please and make everyone around her smile and be happy. Sometimes to a fault. Did not matter where she was... whether that was at home with her husband and four kids, whether she was at family gatherings, whether she was out with friends or whether she was at work. She gave 100% of herself trying to make each of our lives happier.

And once again I ask, "Dear Lord, how are we supposed to be thankful? But then, what I hope is through the grace of God, I tried seeing the other side of the coin. What did we have to be thankful for... and I could see a little glimmer of light.

Some of us got to be with her all 63 years of her life. If she was here, I'd say 65 years and she'd slap me and say that I was her older brother. She was so sensitive....lol.

From her mother's point of view, she got to enjoy 63 years of a daughter's unending love, from her husband's point of view, he was extremely fortunate to enjoy over 40 years of marriage to the love of his life and from her children's point of view, they got to enjoy the unending love, nurturing, attention, devotion, loyalty and friendship that only a mother can give. From a sibling point of view, Debbie gave herself to each and everyone of us. She had a profound impact on each of our lives, all in a different way. She always tried her best to be cheerful. Especially with that contagious laugh of hers. I could go on and on but then it would turn into selfishness on my part, because I would talk about how important she was to me to have her for my big sister all these years.

And so Dear Lord, please keep Debbie forever in your eternal peace and safety until the one day we are once again reunited.

Jayne, Debbie was certainly the most amazing friend and brought joy, love and laughter to all who knew her. I do know though, that you were each other's very best friends. I happen to come across this poem yesterday, and I think Debbie would have sent it to you.....

*"Of all the friends I've ever met
You're the one I won't forget
And if I die
Before you do
I'll go to heaven
And wait for you
I'll give the angels
Back their wings
And risk the loss of everything
Just to prove
My friendship is true"*

I have complete faith that Debbie is in heaven now, watching over all who love her and will always love her. We miss you, our sweet, wonderful friend.
