“ I just wanted to let the family know that I'm sorry for your loss. I'm not sure if you remember me Jeff Schumann and friend to Eric back in High School. I learned about Eric's passing in your mom obituary and sorry for his loss as well. I tired to reach out to Eric several times with no response. I will miss him and your parents too.

I could of not ask for such a warm welcome you and your family gave to me. For this will be instilled into me the rest of my life. Dam where did the time pass as I feel this was just yesterday. Me and Eric bonded because of our accidents that happened earlier in our lives. I cannot imagine what Eric as to what I have been going through from these accidents.

I know that their passing there is nothing I can say. I will say their kindness and thoughtfulness will be always with me and I never forget them.

I could not find Eric's obituary, if you could send this to me I would be grateful.

My best, Jeff Schumann, jas3@tds.net

“ Cody was one of the most gracious women I have ever known. She was usually smiling and very willing to share her life with us in the Holy Cross women's discussion group. Please accept my prayers and sympathy for your loss.

“ There are hundreds of words I could say from my heart, to describe what a beautiful and wonderful person, Dody Danner, was. She was a first class woman, who became a dear friend, whom I will always have cherished memories of. Little did I know when I had met Dody, over 35 years ago, from my own mother, who bowled and golfed with her in Madison, WI leagues, that her youngest son and my daughter, would some day marry each other. And then, Dody and I, got to share the honor of grandparenting, for over 18 years, to our 2 beloved grandsons. Thus, we experienced lots of fun and great times together, over many years. We spoke of opportunities, that we could do together, at a safer time, when pandemic levels, would be more diminished.

Dody was a true gem, and so very special to me and my family. To have a friend like Dody, is one of the sweetest gifts that life and bring. Dody was truly one of God's gifts to this world. Love you, Dody. I will sincerely miss you, Betti “Dody was such a gracious hostess. After my first night in the Wisconsin house, I woke to Dody flipping pancakes, making eggs, and bacon or anything anyone wanted. It seemed like everybody wanted something special and she didn't flinch— she smilingly did whatever we wanted! She was so happy and if I remember it right, she was singing and telling jokes. I couldn't believe anyone was that happy in the morning.

As I grew up, I asked her for relationship advice. I asked her how she found it possible to forgive her man and we talked about why we stay, and she was quick to say—for the furs and jewelry!! I laughed so hard and it made me realize that sometimes you just hang in there. I think she taught me how being a Mom, being a wife, being a hostess, and being a beautiful woman—all at the same time—was doable and she made it look easy.

I didn't get to see her in these later years but always remembered that her birthday was Leap Year. That probably entitled her to be about 29 this year.

She was a wonderful, happy person inside and out. And as the doctor told Ann, if you have to go, this was the best way. You're my role model woman, Dody. I'll always see your bright eyes and smiling face in the sunshine. Love, Louise
