“ *Dear George,
I was honored to know Diana when we both worked at Allstate. I have happy memories of our group of friends going out for lunch once a month to celebrate birthdays. We may not have seen each other since retirement; but I often think of the fun we all had together.
May you find comfort in all the memories you have of the life you built with Diana.
Sincerely, Karin Karge*

“ George and Family, I am so saddened to hear of Diana's death. I know she was just about to celebrate her 80th birthday later this month which knowing her, she was looking forward to celebrating.

I met Diana at Allstate when I transferred into the same department in which she worked. We soon became friends and she was always willing to pitch in and help when necessary. Shortly after getting to know her, I invited her to join my group of ladies who would meet for dinners and other outings. She was always ready to join in and continued doing so until our group got smaller as many of us began retiring. Even after that, she would join us for dinner, many times with George being our token male. You were a good sport George, always listening to the ladies bantering. I will always remember Diana's spirit and good humor. May you all be comforted by your happy memories and knowing that Diana loved all of you dearly. She spoke of her family with only love and pride to everyone she met. Blessings to all of you and may she rest in Peace. Carol Z.
