“ When I think of my aunt Dixie Jo the first thing that comes to mind is fun. From camping trips to playing Uno to simply sharing a meal with her (my favorite was her homemade mostaccioli), Dixie's spirit was light and playful. She always had a welcoming smile and a big hug waiting for anyone who was lucky enough to know her. You knew that she loved you because she let you know it and she showed it abundantly. She was fiercely loyal to her family and made everyone feel included. She raised two of the most kind and thoughtful sons anyone could ever know and she was so proud of them. The world will be a little dimmer from now on without her in it, but she left us with some of the best memories of a life lived with joy and enthusiasm. I will miss her dearly. Sending love to Don, Ed, Rudy, Lorrie, and Magen and all of Dixie Jo's sisters and brothers.
