“ I know that she is at peace now. I have so many memories of Dee & I growing up together since we were the only girls in the family until my sister Debbie was born in 1954. I remember our ballet dance recital, dancing to "Surry with the Fringe on Top" dressed in our ballet costumes and how much fun it was. I remember all of our family holidays together. Our families did everything together. We were more like sisters than first cousins. I will miss her very much.
