“ All my love and adoration to the most loving and giving woman I have ever known. She was a loving daughter, sister, aunt, and great aunt to all of her family. She is loved and will be missed forever by those that love her and have known her and look forward to seeing her again in heaven.

“ I loved my aunt very much and will miss her terribly. She was a loving person and a great card player. In her youth she also designed dresses. For many years she was a real asset to the AON company. She is now reunited with my mother (her sister) and her parents in Heaven. They are always in our hearts
