“ I dream and think about my Mimi more now than when she passed. My papa was always taking care of her. I think without Mims he lost that purpose. She made everything I wore and did feel cool. She HATED my 90s streaky hair and god so did I! She helped save me from that. She loves us and hugged us in a way I can't even tell anyone they might be held. Her heart was bigger than her hair. My Mimi will watch me always and im so grateful pops can hold her now. Mimi I would trade years of my life to just talk to you again. I love you.

“ I just found out about Dorothy, and I am truly saddened. Last night, I had a dream about Don and Dorothy. I can't even remember now what the dream was about except that they were in that dream. So I looked up their names and that's how I found out about Dorothy. Don and Dorothy were a big part of my life during my first marriage to William Gabriel. We were family. I remember doing Dorothy's hair once a week (I was an aspiring beautician).. I always enjoyed our talks while she was there. William and I divorced in 1974, but Don and Dorothy continued to be family. Our children called them Aunt and Uncle, and the children loved them dearly. Dorothy always had a smile on her face. William passed away in 2003, and Don and Dorothy attended his memorial service. I moved to Arizona, so that was the last time I saw them, but they were happy and healthy, and I loved them both with all my heart. To Don, Dawn, Mark, and their families, my heartfelt condolences to you all. Dorothy will always have a special place in my heart.
