Dorothy and I met in 1966 while we both worked at Illinois Bell. Where did 54 years go? Although our lives took different paths, we always kept in touch. I am so thankful that I called her just a few days before she went to Heaven. Due to the quarantine, we cried as we knew we would not ever see each other again. She promised to look down upon me though! I will always treasure my sweet, loving friend. Until we meet again Dorothy. I love you.
