

Edward J. Willer

June 18, 1926 - January 9, 2022

Edward J. Willer, 95, passed away on Sunday, January 9, 2022 peacefully at his home in Libertyville, IL. He was born June 18, 1926 in Libertyville where he remained a lifelong resident. Ed was a veteran of the United States Navy, serving in WWII and a member of the American Legion Post 329 in Libertyville. He and his family harvested sweet corn and sold it by going door to door and also grew vegetables, pumpkins & and as a family made homemade Christmas wreaths that they sold out of the garage. Ed was a former longtime maintenance employee for the Village of Libertyville and Lake County Public Works sewer plant operator. He will be remembered as an outdoors person who enjoyed hunting and fishing and spending time at his vacation home in Fifield, WI.

He is survived by his children, Jim (Deanna) Willer, Sharon Willer and Joe "Ralph" (Denise) Willer; 6 grandchildren, Jeremy, Stefanie, Jennifer, Monique & Jessica; 8 great grandchildren & 1 great great grandson; brother-in-law, Fred (Delores) Eiserman and numerous nieces & nephews.

He was preceded in death by his wife of 66 years, Barbara in 2014; daughter, Susan in 2020; twin sons, Edward John & John Edward; siblings, Richard, Adeline, Floyd; brothers-in-law, Harry, Chuck & Gene and a cousin, Jack. Interment with military honors will be held spring 2022 at Lakeside Cemetery in Libertyville. Arrangements by Burnett-Dane Funeral Home in Libertyville. For info: 847-362-3009 or share a memory at www.burnettdane.com.

Tribute Wall

ME

“ I was a neighbor starting back in 1968. I watched him grow vegetables in his back yard. He was always going to Butler lake fishing. Ed was a great guy always fix in things and always ready to help if needed

Mike Egan - January 14, 2022 at 07:00 PM