“ We are going to miss Aunt El. She was always just so sweet and considerate, so proud of her family- a wonderful mom. Even though Connor only met her once when he was little, he remembers her and has been asking about her. Goodbye El, rest in peace with the angels and we will always love and remember you. Lynn & Connor ”

“ To the family, I think of Ms. Campbell often. What a sweet, dear, active lady. I was her hair dresser for years. I would go to her house in Murray Hill to cut her hair. Her sister had moved in with her.. she moved into her new home. We talked on the phone occasionally, she would always say, "come to see me!"I thought of one of her quotes today, while talking to my sister. With three birthdays to buy for in August, I asked if she had bought them yet. Her response was, I'm just going to give them money. I said, "well it's always the right color even though it might not be the right size!" Ms. Eleanor was a sincere, honest good lady. I admired her taking care of herself, especially her excersizing. She loved all of her family so dearly. I'm sure you have many more fond memories. I'm so glad she came into my life. May God continue to bless you all!
