

Elizabeth M. Marrone

November 10, 1937 - April 13, 2024

Elizabeth Mary (nee Kaluzny) Marrone, 86, passed away on Saturday, April 13, 2024.

She was born to Joseph and Annette Kaluzny on November 10, 1937, in Waukegan Illinois. Elizabeth went to high school in Fond du Lac Wisconsin, in her early years she also lived in Niles, Michigan, South Bend, Indiana, and Milwaukee, Wisconsin, where she attended Cardinal Stritch College, studying art and French.

Subsequently, she attended Lewis University in Romeoville IL. There she met her future husband Joseph and settled in Woodridge, IL. Elizabeth became a homemaker, was active in the St Scholastica parish for many years, and in the early 1980s, also an art teacher there. Elizabeth's husband death preceded her in 1979. With family support, she obtained a pilot's license in a Cessna aircraft. In the late 80s, she returned to Lewis to obtain her baccalaureate. She then began an over decade long career with her own insurance agency. Elizabeth was a volunteer with the St. Vincent de Paul Society. Her creative hobbies included making silver and gold jewelry and also stained-glass art. She also enjoyed cooking, baking, fine dining, time with friends and live music for many years. She will be best remembered as a wonderful homemaker and devoted mother.

Surviving are her four children, Joseph Marrone, Paul (Maria) Marrone, Elizabeth Marrone and Stephen Marrone; two sisters, Judith Kaluzny and Kathryn Kaluzny; sister-in-law, Dorothy Kaluzny and many (great, great grand) nieces and nephews. Elizabeth was preceded in death by her husband, Joseph Marrone, and by her brothers, Mark, Paul and David Kaluzny. A visitation will begin at 10:00 a.m. followed by funeral mass at 10:30 a.m. on Monday, May 6, 2024, at St. Scholastica Church, 7800 Janes Ave. in Woodridge, IL. She will be laid to rest with family at Ascension Cemetery in Libertyville. Arrangements by Burnett-Dane Funeral Home in Libertyville.
