“ Beth had a wonderful sense of humor. I remember when she made a toast at David and Sylvia's wedding. She told the story of when David surprised her by showing up at her work to take her out to lunch to ask for her consent for him to marry Sylvia. Seconds before the waiter approached, David had pulled out the engagement ring to show Beth. She got a great kick out of telling the story about the shock on the waiter's face thinking he was witnessing a proposal! I am not sure that I ever thanked Beth for raising such a wonderful daughter. I could never have asked for a better wife for my son or mother for my granddaughter. It is evident by the way Sylvia leads her life that she was brought up by a caring and loving mother that she knew loved her unconditionally. That is a legacy to be proud of. I am sure Beth is in heaven now, free of pain and holding our sweet grandson Brooks. We will all miss her.
