“ To the Majewski family, I knew your Mom way back as a member of Mother's Club in Wilmette, What a super, super lady!!!! She was always so vivacious and full of energy, and just made you feel good to be around her. One outstanding memory was when she did a rendition of "Hello Dolly" for us. I know she was an fantastic nurse and teacher but I think she would have been phenominal on the stage as well. She'll always be remembered by us. Maureen Quinn

“ Dearest Cousins, Uncle Stan, Relatives and friends, We can not begin to describe the loss that we feel of Aunt Emily. We are sorry that we were not aware of her brief illness sooner, as we certainly would have kept in touch and said gazillion prayers. We will always remember the sweet memeroies of times our families spent together. To this day, there is no more delightful and pungent aroma smell than the evergreens that Aunt Emily and Uncle Ed would so expertly make into Christmas decorations. Ed, your father, John, Emilys older brother, our siblings Debbie and Randy, and our Grandma and Grandpa all preceded in passing) will surely be having some laughs and touching monents together as they reminence the past. Aunt Jean still talks so much about how Emy took care of her through her numerous and difficult births. Also when Aunt Emily was 24/7 by Randys bed when he was sick and made him drink so he didn't need surgery. Ahhhh the good times, all the dinners at your house, playing and running around your house and just plan being close family. Our deepest thoughts and prayers are with you now at this time of heart break. We can only now say Thanks for the memories, Your Aunt Jean Woznicki, Cousin Robin Wozincki (Miller), and Holly Woznicki) Lezotte

“ My deepest sympathy to all the family members. You were always the highlight of all my meetings with Emily. She was the most positive person with always a chuckle and smile... a true inspiration. She will be remembered with the great fondness and respect. I wish to celebrate her life with all the goodness she invoked to those of us who knew and loved her. "Athy" (Athena Ames)

“ Meeting with Emily each time was like reliving our youth. It was always with smiles and much love!
She was my first friend when moving to Evanston. Years through junior high and as a college roommate, we grew up together sharing tears and joyes. Vacationing to Cuba, standing up to each others weddings, sharing the happiness of four children and death of our spouses....our lives were always entwined.
With much sadness I share the loss with all who knew Emily.

“ Emily and I attended ETHS, but not at the same time. However, we loved to compare th halls of GBN with our memories of our high school years. She was the good teacher - firm, fair, considerate, and knew her stuff. Every time we were together we laughed! She made all of us happier and loving.
