“ Condolences to the Daily family on the passing of your beloved Emily . She was the kindest & most compassionate person one could ever meet . As her next door neighbor for many years , and a young kid at the time , I still remember her soothing smile & the aura of peacefulness always surrounding her . She was such a great friend to the Najdowski family , and she will be missed by us all. May she rest in eternal peace .

“ Oh, Mrs. O!We dearly loved you and knew if we couldn't find our Mom, we had only a fewsteps to take to find our second one.I certainly hope you have found my Mom and are having a blast kibitzing and drinking coffee together.Ellen, Paul, Dorie and Mar ... I so feel your pain. Losing Mom was probably the single most difficult event in my life.There is no replacement for your Mom.Not even close. Will see you on Saturday.Love,Marcia (or Marcy, as your Mom called me)

“ I recall when I was younger Grandma O was visiting us and she was making a birthday cake. She was mixing the ingredients for the batter, I know now she was making it from scratch. I asked her what she was doing. "Making birthday cake". I said, that's not the way my mom does it. She said, "How does your mom do it?". I told her that she opens a box, pours out the powder, cracks two eggs and mixes it together." Obviously not from scratch. He said, "well, we all have different ways of doing things"
