“ Eric Schneider was a wonderful man, a great husband, father, grandfather and friend. You know the mark of a great man and his wife by their love and comittment to each other and to their family and friends. He and Maria instilled and nurtured in their children a strong work ethic, love of others, fierce loyalty and faith. You see it in his children and grandchildren, all of whom carry on some of his traits. He was warm and inviting, quick with a story for every occasion and he had a great sense of humor. He was truly one of a kind and we will miss him dearly. I count myself blessed to have known him. Our prayers are with you all!

“ My wife and I had the good fortune of meeting Eric through his son Bob. While at first we got to know him as he painted our house, we quickly got to know him as a friend.

To watch Bob and Eric work together was really something special, they complimented each other at everything they did. It's a pleasure to see a father and son work together like that.

While we probably never got to know him as well as his many friends and family, we're happy for the time that we did spend. Our hearts and prayers go out to all.

“ Mike and I spent a lot of time with Eric and Bob as they painted our house inside and out with true precision for many years. The two always had happy smiles and fun interesting chatter. Eric was the best in his trade and taught all he knew to Bob who quickly caught on and carried on the tradition with perfection. We so enjoyed having them come to the house and loved Eric's smiles when we took him for a spin in the German convertible. Loved Eric and his work ethics ... Such a master and so proud.

Our deepest sympathies to the whole family ... Dear Eric will be missed by so many who's lives he touched. What a guy! We'll sure miss him!!!!
