“ My deepest sympathy to Billy, Mimi, and Karen and the grandchildren. Stevie was my first friend in Libertyville. Those were the days long before gray ruled; everything was country and cute in the shops. Stevie walked across from her Cape Cod on the corner of Briar and Ardmore to my Georgian on Ardmore. Those were the two house types in Copeland Manor. She smiled her cheerful smile. She said hello and welcome. After that, thousands of kindnesses and laughs came to us from her and the family. Her devotion to her mother, her brothers and sisters, and of course her children and grandchildren was a model for me. May we all forever be connected in our hearts with her generous and loving spirit.

“ Surprised and saddened to read about Stevie's passing. Haven't seen her in many years but recall many days sharing the bleachers during our sons' Little League games. A warm smile and a gentle demeanor, she was simply a delightful lady. Our condolences to all the family members. Sandi & Jeff Stevenson

“ Lived across the street from Ethel when we were growing up. Ethel was My brother's age and I was the same age as Maryann. Your family has my deepest sympathy and prayers. May she rest in peace.
