“ So sorry to hear of your loss. My son Jim Hinkler called me from Honolulu, Hawaii, informing me of your Mom. My son Joseph Hinkler left for Florida today and my daughter Sue Hinkler is in St. Martin. So they are saddened not to be able to attend any services but shared memories with your family. We had many memories at the restaurant with the Hinkler clan for years, the school years with all of our children. The last time I saw Mother was at St. Bede's Church at the end of mass. We hugged and hoped to see one another. I plan on attending the wake service to represent my family. It was their wishes. Mary Hinkler - Jadrich

“ Mama Guido...special second Mom to me growing up. My deepest condolences to the all the Guido kids and Families. She always had time to talk with you, always had another seat at the table saved for me (who can forget the Christmas Seafood Feasts at the Guido Homestead) Saved my life as a waiter...not letting Joe Sr throw knives at me when I would ask if the Steaks were ready yet when serving the Roman Feasts. Wired Louie and I $$$ on vacation in Padre Island to get home. Somehow mismanaged our money. Four years as a Waiter at Guidos... she always knew when you needed help and when you needed a hug!A special loving and caring Lady. Tears my heart out as myself and my wife Ann will be out of the Country. Rest assured she is reunited with Joe and Joey. Only one place available for an Angel like Her...Heaven... for sure! Love you Florence Rest in Peace.

“ It was with great sadness that I learned that Florence had passed. After my mother passed, my Dad was so sad and lonely, then one day he met Florence at church. They spent the next 15 years together, and they had such a special and loving relationship that they always made me smile when I saw them together. I want to thank you Florence for making the last 15 years so special for my Dad and I will always remember how loving you were to me and my family. Rest in peace. Love, Liz (Gort) Novelen

“ Florence, May you rest in peace in Heaven. Vasco and I were very sad to hear of your passing. It brought us great happiness to know that you and my Grandfather loved each other so much and spent many many happy years together. The two of you were just so adorable together. We have fond memories of you coming to stay with us in Arizona with my Grandpa. The way you two would laugh together and share stories with us brought us a lot of joy. It was very sweet to see you both find true love not only once, but twice in both of your lives. It's not easy to do. But I do know it was genuine, sweet, and sincere. Thank you for being a part of our family the last 15 years. You are missed. Love, Nicole (Gort) Peiffer
