“ Frank was so special to our whole family. We loved him and we loved sharing our vacation time with him on Lake Michigan. He came prepared and even brought his VCR and movies to entertain us between swimming and bonfires. He enjoyed the outdoors, the lake, and the Buchholz relatives got to enjoy his company too. He was the honorary grandson to Charles parents and we'll never forget the good times we had with him. He was more than a friend to Mary on those vacations. He was more like a brother. Our condolences and prayers go out to Cindy and Frank and all the Arcaro Family.

“ We were proud to be Frankie's uncle & aunt and were blessed with seeing him all through his very short life. Frankie was a warm, genuinely kind person who was friends with all. Whenever Frankie entered into a room full of people, he personally greeted each person and was concerned about everyone's well-being. Frankie would not hesitate to say hello and introduce himself to anyone he did not know with the intent of getting to know the person His outgoing & friendly personality would instantly light up the room. Frankie, while you have left us so early, you will always remain in our hearts. You are truly missed; the world will never be the same without you in our lives....

“ WOW. Frankie. As life goes these days, when it finally gets good, absolutely nothing works how I want it to; or how it should. I could fill multiple pint glass size cups of tears that run out of me for you. At least now my CUP will always be FULL. I will surely miss all the "nevers" we will never have. I love you so very much, my dear cousin Frank. and, I will miss you forever more. One day I will get to hang out with you again with Jesus.

“ Frank & Family, Please accept my most sincere condolences. There are no words that will convey my sadness upon learning of Frankie's passing. Maybe the only thing any of us really ever make are memories, and Frankie obviously made many good ones. I hope that every time you see an animal, hear about an extraterrestrial or recall a Grateful Dead song, fond memories will fill your thoughts and peace will fill your hearts. God Bless you all. Tom
