“ On behalf of the Omni Salon & Spa and Yoga Studio staff, we are beyond sorry for the loss of Dan. He was such a wonderful conversationalist and had great stories and a delightful personality. We always enjoyed being with him. His Stylist, April, said that she always learned something new during his appointments. He will be greatly missed. Liz, we love you so much ♡ You are our friend and we are always here to take great care of you. Sending you all the love and prayers!

“ I was so saddened to hear of Dan's passing, and I am sending my deeply felt condolences to Liz. The two of you have been such an enthusiastic part of our little Francophone group in Racine. Dan will be missed, but I certainly hope that you will continue to be part of our weekly gatherings. You are in my thoughts, Liz.

“ Liz and family, so very sorry to hear of this. Going way back to the 1970's, Dan was one of our young managers at C&NW Railway, liked and admired by all who worked with him. A tremendously bright and personable guy, respected for his business sense and practicality, Abbott was fortunate to have been able to recruit him away from us.

“ Dan was our cousin from America, very close through his numerous visits to Brittany with Liz for 20 years, and also through social networks. He learned French to be able to talk to us, and on each visit we could see his progress.
We're going to miss you, Dan.
Rest in peace with your parents and David.

“ Liz, I am so sorry to hear of Dan's passing. I worked with him in Procurement back in the 90s. Although I worked with 1000s of people over my 32 years, Dan is not a person you forget! I was new in Procurement and he always took the time to teach me. He was so knowledgeable about so many different subjects! His cheerful attitude and positive energy really made a difference! “ Liz: I am terribly saddened by Dan's passing. He was always one to lend a hand and openly shared his knowledge. If he didn't know something, he went about finding it...and took delight in providing it to others. He was a very special man and I feel honored to have known him. I will remember Dan fondly and with great respect.

*My deepest condolences,
Sarah C.*
